You can reach the Terme Euganee by...
c a r , t r a i n , a i r p l a n e

For those who are taking the A4 motorway Turin-Trieste, the suggested exit is Padua west, whether you are coming from Milan or Venice. From here you continue along the bypass west (Corso Australia) until the turn-off for Abano. Then you come on to the provincial road that takes you from Padua to Abano and Montegrotto and after 4 km you will reach the thermal centre.

Alternatively for those who are coming from Venice, please take A4 (Milan direction) and just before Padova, turn to Bologna direction thus entering in the A13 motorway.

From the A13 motorway (Bologna-Padua) take the Terme Euganee exit.

Then follow the Montegrotto direction, you will be brought to its ring road. At a round about you will see the Millepini Hotel building at your left.

The nearest railway station is the one at Terme Euganee - Montegrotto, on the Bologna-Padua line, all the main trains stop here.

Other wise just as convenient is Padua station, on the Milan-Venice line where all the trains stop. Then from the square right in front of the station buses leave direct to Abano and Montegrotto every 15 minutes, the bus lines are A, M, T or AT and the journey takes 30-45 minutes.

Both of the stations have a taxi service.
