To get to Quadrant House you need to first get to Tower Hill underground station.

From Heathrow train to Paddington then Circle line east to Tower Hill

From Gatwick train to Victoria then Circle or District east to Tower Hill

From Stansted to Liverpool St then Circle line to Tower Hill

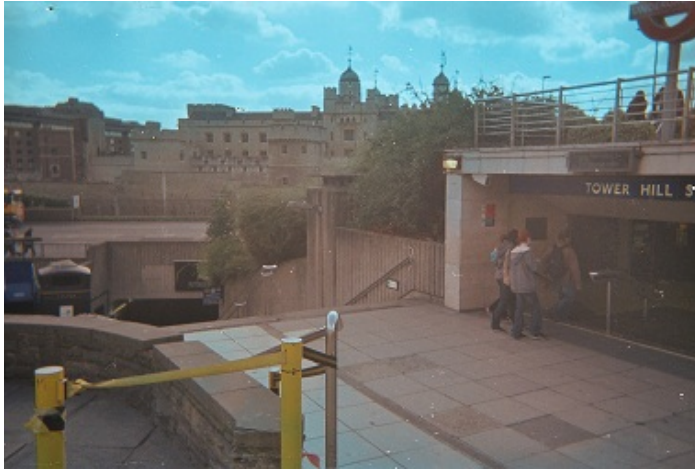

The walk to Quadrant House takes about 15 minutes depending on how long you look at the boats and monuments. The map below gives general directions.

Take the left turning out of Tower Hill Subway, with the Tower on your right.

Follow the path and go under Tower Bridge Road.
(Contribution to tramp entirely optional)

After passing through subway turn right to side of glass building.

Turn left along path passing restaurants and to side of St Katherine's Dock
(Stop and have a coffee if you are early and admire the boats as you pass them.)

Pass round to of scaffolding to get through to second dock.

Go through into second area of St Katherine's Dock.
(Stop for the banquet at your own risk)

Pass along the side of the dock
(Again admire the boats as you go past.)

Follow round the dock to the right, then turn left through passageway under apartments.

LAST TIME I VISITED THERE WERE WORKS ON THOMAS MORE SQUARE
SO YOU MAY NEED TO TURN RIGHT THEN LEFT THEN GO UP STAIRS TO GET TO QUADRANT HOUSE, NO4 THOMAS MORE SQUARE
IF SO IGNORE THE FOLLOWING
