

ETSI EP eHealth Open Meeting on Health and the Internet of Things (HIT)

Use Cases for standards in patient-driven medicine

ETSI EP eHealth Open Meeting on Health and the Internet of Things (HIT)
Friday 20th Nov. 2015	Speaker		Topic
9.30	Welcome	Suno Wood	Use Cases and Security
10.00	Introduction	To be announced	European Developments
	Session One	Security, Privacy &amp; Confidentiality - Everyone's Concern
		Patrick Guillemin	The Internet of Things - ETSI Standards and today's environment for health
		Scott Cadzow	Use Cases and Security
		Continua Alliance	Use Cases for Global Health Standards
	Questions?
11.00 to 11.30	Coffee break
11.30	Session Two	A common language for practical application of eHealth
		Suno Wood	The ETSI glossary
		Malcolm Fisk	International Code of Practice for Telehealth Services
		Prof Karl Stroetmann	Meeting the challenge of unique identification of medicinal products
		Wolfgang Orthuber	How to make quantitative data on the web searchable and interoperable part of the common vocabulary
	Questions?
13.00 - 14.00	Lunch break
14.00	Session Three	Rolling out the Use Cases
		I.b. Johansen	The Danish View, Solutions to sharing information between doctors and dentists
		Renata Guarneri	The Pegaso Project: Fit for the Future
		NHS	To be announced
	Questions?
15.30 - 16.00	Tea Break
16.00	Session Four	eHealth and the HIT list - the way forward
		Prof Thomas Wendt	Reliable Wireless Communications for Health
		Cees Lanting	New Requirements for communications in eHealth
		General Discussion	The Way Forward for (e)Health
17.30	Questions?
	End of Meeting		